

Jenelyn Miller of Ann Arbor, Mich. was awarded a $2,500 scholarship by Car Care Council Women's Board (WB) president Katie Noga, SKF.

Timothy Sturdevant, SAE Warehouse/Sturdevants, presented the 2007 Martin Fromm Lifetime Achievement Award to Aaron Berkowitz, ETW Corp.

William D. Grote III, Grote Industries, Inc., received the AWDA Automotive Leader of the Year Award from Timothy A. Lee, Lang Distributing, Inc.

AAPEX welcomed the worldwide automotive media to its Media Happy Hour at the V Bar in the Venetian.

The AIA Fabulous Networking Reception was the industry's passport to the international aftermarket community.

The 2007 Art Fisher Memorial Scholarship Award was presented to Fred A. Bunting, Auto-Wares, Inc., by Larry A. Pavey, Federated Auto Parts.

Pam Krebs, Robert Bosch LLC, was named Car Care Council Women's Board (WB) Aftermarket Woman of the Year; award presented by WB president Katie Noga, SKF.

A crowd of attendees learned about the Motor Vehicle Owners' Right to Repair Act during AAIA's educational seminar, "Right to Repair: A Global View."

AIA People Award winners received their honors during the AIA Luncheon and Awards program.

Scott Flowers, Auto Supply Co., was presented the Counterman Magazine Counter Professional of the Year award by Jeff Stauffer, Affinia Group, Inc., and Brian Cruickshank, Babcox Publications.

Jay Burkhart, Federal-Mogul, received this year's AWDA Pursuit of Excellence Award, awarded to him by Jon Owens, Babcox Publications.

Special guest Hillary Will, KB Racing, joined Leadership Development Network (LDN) chairman Don Keeling, N. A. Williams Company, in welcoming attendees to the LDN reception.